

Bidalgo Offers the Ultimate Mix That Can't Be Beat: Hybrid UA Solution

At Bidalgo, our clients' satisfaction is always our #1 priority. We offer both fully managed and self-service solutions - a unique hybrid approach that allows clients to grow with us – starting by using our services to run their campaigns until they take full control and use our SaaS platform on their own.

With our dedicated 'Bidalgo Academy' training program, extensive support, vast knowledge, and unique algorithm solution, we allow our clients to start their activity on the right track, dramatically scale their applications and user base, and take their products to the next level.

I'm very impressed by what Bidalgo can do. Everyone we worked with - from their account managers to their support team - has provided top-level customer service for Billguard. Their comprehensive hybrid solution was exactly what we needed to hit our spend targets and help us reach the performance results we were looking for.
